KEPPEL KRIPPLER

28-29TH OF AUGUST

Save the Date!

Dear Sailing Members,

I want to welcome Michael Robinson into the role of Sailing Manager at KBSC.

Great to see you Mike and we hope you are settling in!

Conrgats to those who went to Townsville for the Sabot Nationals and those who went south to Brisbane for the Opti event. I hope you enjoyed a great time! I have heard some good stories... I want to touch base on a couple of matters.

The Board is expecting concept designs for the clubhouse redevelopment as well as formal sign-off for Commonwealth funding support - more soon!

Food and beverage service on sailing days is changing.

The cafe service from the ground floor demountable is closing. You will be able (indeed encouraged) to purchase food and coffee (etc) from the first floor facilities of the club on sailing days. Indeed coffee will be offered at a reduced price of 30% off. And further, a $10 bacon/egg roll and coffee will be on offer, along with a cup of chips for 4$ and cup of nuggets and chips for $6.50. From midday the Bilge bar will be open on sail race days - and close at 5 pm. During opening times the Bilge bar will serve a Toastie for $7 and a bowl of chips for $5.

Some facility for ground floor tea/coffee making (of a more instant variety) is being looked at.

Some of you have asked about doing a BBQ as the Sunday morning sailing training winds down and sailing racing preparation begins. To do this I need to find someone willing to coordinate the initiative (including purchase of food stuffs) - and arrange a parent/member roster. I'm thinking this gathering might not be needed every week perhaps. But If you are that person (or persons :) then please get in touch (0408 379 373 or mighew@icloud.com). There are a couple of 'rooles' to be observed around safe food handling of course.

With thanks,

Michael Hewson (for the Sailing Committee)
