A big thanks to our functions team and bar staff for looking after us on the night, and to everyone else who pitched in to help with set-up. Our photographers and a special mention to Sarah-Jane for the acoustic tunes throughout the evening.

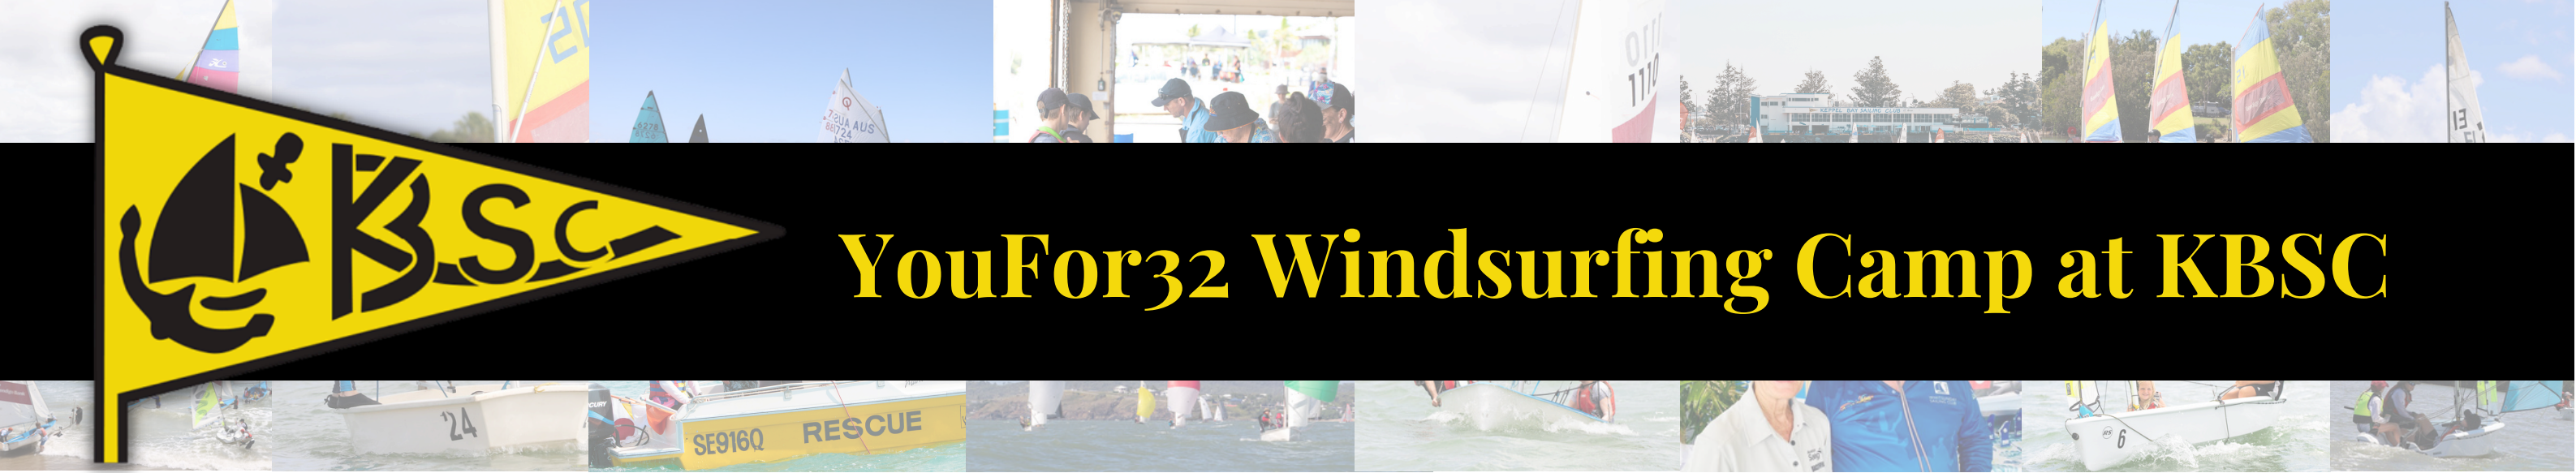

There was plenty of competition off the water too, with the boat-building challenge and blind drawing bringing out some serious competitive streaks!

Congratulations to all our winners, and thank you to everyone who raced, volunteered, supported and contributed throughout the season.

Bring on 2026-27!

Opening of Season weekend starts 29th - 30th August

YouFor32 Windsurfing Camp at KBSC

Tommy, Matilda and Emily have been back continuing their YouFor2032 pathway with a weekend of windsurfing training.

It was a great opportunity for the sailors to work with QAS coach Scotty Luxton, making the most of some quality time on the water and continuing to develop their skills.

The windsurfers also joined in our Winter Series racing on Sunday, which was a great addition to the fleet and a chance to put their training into race practice.

With their final day of the camp today, we look forward to watching Tommy, Matilda and Emily continue to develop and progress their skills in this space.
